SABINA TURNER   B.Mus., Dip Ed, A. Mus.A

Sabina Turner has been on the teaching staff at Pymble Ladies' College for many years, including 20 years as the Director of Music at the College. Currently she is the Director of all Co-Curricular Performing Arts, overseeing not only Music but also Dance, Drama and Language Arts. While Music and Choirs have been her main passion, her experience and knowledge also extend to other genres of the Performing Arts in many forms.

At the College, Sabina conducts the Pymble Chorale, a 60 voice auditioned choir, The School Choir, a massed choir of 150+ voices from Years 7 – 12, and the Junior School Chamber Choir, a select voice choir of 25 girls from Years 5 & 6. Her tertiary training was undertaken at Elder Conservatorium in Adelaide, majoring in music education, voice and conducting while also teaching at Pembroke School.

Her continuing studies in music education and choral conducting techniques have enabled her to work with several leading Australian and international conductors.

Sabina has considerable teaching experience in both primary and secondary schools, not only in classroom music, but in other areas of the performing arts. Her choirs have competed with considerable success in numerous eisteddfods and international competitions. She has conducted several massed choral festivals, adjudicated eisteddfods and performing arts competitions as well as having extensive performing experience in a variety of choral groups.
